

CZK 200 BANKNOTE

2018 VERSION

On 5 September 2018, the Czech National Bank will put into circulation a new 2018 version of the CZK 200 banknote. The new banknote is based on the same design and its dimensions and basic parameters are also the same as the previous version. However, its protection against counterfeiting has been enhanced significantly. The existing protective elements have been changed and new ones added, and other alterations have been made to the design. This poster describes only some of the protective elements, intended for the general public and visible to the naked eye. The other elements are described in the CNB leaflet CZK 200 banknote, 2018 version and at www.cnb.cz.

The main differences on the 2018 version of the CZK 200 banknote are as follows:

the watermark with a portrait of John Amos Comenius visible against the light now also contains the number 200 with a stylised chalice.

Governor's signature "J. Rusnok" yellow circles in coupon and some parts of print pattern

against the light

security windowed thread 3 mm wide with recurring hatched negative microtext "ČNB 200 Kč"
